

The Bulldog Trust

The British Fulbright Scholars Association in collaboration with the US-UK Fulbright Commission and The Bulldog Trust have the pleasure of inviting you to a

Christmas Drinks Reception

Friday 14th December, 6.00pm – 8.00pm

Two Temple Place, London, WC2R 3BD

Guest Speaker

Professor Philip Davies

The Eccles Centre for American Studies, British Library

“What are the implications of the 2012 American elections?”

RSVP to bfsa@fulbright.org.uk

Business Attire

About the organisers

The BFSA is the UK Fulbright alumni association. Founded in 1982 as a registered charity (No. 292242) the association provides a network to create and maintain links between Fulbrighters, past and present.

The US-UK Fulbright Commission was founded in 1948 to promote mutual cultural understanding between both nations. The Commission offers postgraduate, scholar and other educational awards to British and American citizens.

The Bulldog Trust is a charitable trust that provides financial and advisory assistance to charities and works to encourage philanthropy. Bulldog's initiative the Engaging Experience Philanthropy Network connects professionals with charities looking for commercial advice or skills for projects or trusteeships. The EEPN looks forward to collaborating with the BFSA to encourage and support past and present Fulbrighters find rewarding and interesting ways to volunteer their expertise in the UK.

The magnificent late Victorian mansion, Two Temple Place, is home to The Bulldog Trust and plays host to its initiatives including the EEPN and many other charitable events as well as being available for commercial hire.