

Engaging Experience Philanthropy Network In partnership with Young Philanthropy

at Two Temple Place, London WC2R 3BD
6.30pm Thursday 26th September 2013

---

Event Hosts

---

The Bulldog Trust provides financial and advisory assistance to charities. Based at Two Temple Place, the house serves as a focal point for many of the Trust's activities including our initiatives to encourage and inspire others into philanthropy.

Established by the Trust in 2009, the Engaging Experience Philanthropy Network (EEPN) connects professionals with interesting opportunities to apply their skills to charitable benefit and hosts inspiring events for its members. If you would like to join, please contact Marina Sevier, the Network Manager at marina@bulldogtrust.org

Young Philanthropy is a social enterprise with a mission to educate and empower a new generation of philanthropists to take a leading role in transforming society. YP's key initiative is the Young Philanthropy Syndicate – a platform for young professionals to join together and invest their money, time and skills in a niche charity project, with matched funding from an experienced philanthropist and their employer. www.youngphilanthropy.org.uk

---

Charities Presenting

---

Futures Theatre Company use drama productions and interactive workshops to empower disadvantaged young people and vulnerable women affected by issues including drug use, prostitution and gang membership, as well as educating broader audiences on controversial social issues.

Speaker: Caroline Bryant, Artistic Director

Contact: caroline@futurestheatrecompany.co.uk

Looking for: strategic marketing advice on how to develop and reach out to new audiences beyond schools AND help with branding and website design.

---

OVER THE WALL

Over the Wall provides free UK residential activity camps for children with serious and terminal illnesses. The camps help to boost their confidence, self-esteem and resilience through a programme of activities from riding, sailing, cookery to painting.

Speaker: Kevin Mathieson, Chief Executive

Contact: kevin@otw.org.uk

Looking for: adhoc HR advice, a range of professionals to join their Development Board AND help in developing strategic corporate partnerships to raise the profile of the organisation.

---

NORTH
LONDON
CARES

North London Cares is a community network in Camden and Islington recruiting young professional volunteers to support their older neighbours with a little extra time, practical support, social connection and human companionship.

Speaker: Alex Smith, Founder & CEO

Contact: alex.smith@northlondoncares.org.uk

Looking for: volunteers to support the elderly AND strategic advice on replicating the model.

MINISTRY OF STORIES

Ministry of Stories, co-founded by author Nick Hornby in 2010, is a creative writing and mentoring centre in east London for 8-18 year olds. Accessed through a secret door in Hoxton St Monsters Supplies Store, the MoS uses storytelling to unleash imagination and build confidence and communication skills.

Speaker: Ben Payne, Co-Director

Contact: ben@ministryofstories.org

Looking for: new trustees with expertise in commercial law, property development, retail/wholesale AND strategic advice on replicating the model around the UK.

StreetInvest
Investing in children on the street

Street Invest works to improve the lives of street children around the world. StreetInvest has trained Street Workers from 18 countries to be the trustworthy adult in the lives of some 35,000 of these children.

Speaker: Duncan Ross, CEO

Contact: duncan.ross@streetinvest.org

Looking for: strategic advice on how to commercialise their training model, volunteer financial/operations support 1 day per week, French speakers to translate reports to English.

Team Up helps disadvantaged school kids and university students access further education and top professions. Bright volunteers from university provide tuition and support to school kids and working professionals mentor university students to help them make a successful transition into a career.

Speaker: Sharla Duncan, CEO

Contact: sharla.duncan@teamup.org.uk

Looking for: professionals from finance, law, accountancy and education to become business mentors and support young people enter these professions AND a qualified accountant to independently examine Team UP's finances and accounting system.