

The Bulldog Trust Invitation

The Bulldog Trust, in collaboration with the Big Society Network, are delighted to invite you to attend the Engaging Experience Philanthropy Network: encouraging executive engagement in philanthropy.

4-6pm on Thursday 12th May at
10 Downing Street, London SW1A 0AA

This exciting event will provide network members with the opportunity to meet a number of ground-breaking charities, projects and social enterprises looking for specific commercial expertise to assist them with taking their projects to the next level.

During the event, a select number of these organisations will be introducing themselves to the room with a view to winning the professional skills they need.

To apply for a place, please contact:

alice@bulldogtrust.org

Places offered will be strictly non-transferable and attendees will need to bring Photo ID to gain admission.
