

Engaging Experience Philanthropy Network Thames Valley

The Chief Executive of The Bulldog Trust and the Partners of MHA MacIntyre Hudson invite you to the launch of the

Engaging Experience Philanthropy Network Thames Valley (EEPN)

Tuesday 23rd June 2015, 6 – 8pm

at MHA MacIntyre Hudson Conference Suite, Abbey Place,
24-28 Easton Street, High Wycombe HP11 1NT

Following the success of the London EEPN our new network in the Thames Valley will connect local business leaders, professionals and entrepreneurs with dynamic charities looking for specific pro bono strategic and commercial advice.

Please RSVP to our network Directors:

Sally Birkett & Emma Field

EEPNThamesValley@bulldogtrust.org

Special Guest Speaker:

Katherine Woods

Founder and CEO of Meeting Magic, the brand leader in meeting facilitation and consultancy, based in Marlow. Katherine is also an Ambassador for The Child Bereavement Trust as well as Board Meeting Facilitator for Escaping Victimhood.

Joined by:

Mary Rose Gunn

Chief Executive of The Bulldog Trust

Chris Harris

Partner & Social Enterprise Specialist at MHA MacIntyre Hudson

Supported by:

The Bulldog Trust

MHA MacIntyre Hudson

The Bulldog Trust established the first Engaging Experience Philanthropy Network in London in 2009, connecting over 200 charities a year with professionals for the exchange of skills and expertise.

www.bulldogtrust.org or follow @bulldogtrust

MHA MacIntyre Hudson is a national firm of Chartered Accountants and Business Advisors, with a strong client base of charities and not for profit organisations. www.macintyreHUDSON.co.uk or follow @MHUpdates